

SWELL 03 – Program

9.15	Warm Welcome (Fribourg Team)
-------------	-------------------------------------

9.45 Basel block:

Judith Wieser – The comprehension of metaphors by L1 and L2 speakers of English

Sarah Ebner – A dynamical system approach to speech and language

10.45 Fribourg block:

Mercedes Durham – Adverbials in Pan Swiss English

Yvonne Dröschel – Is Swiss English a pidgin? The simplification processes of English in Switzerland

Stjohn Skilton – Long-term migrancy and short-term recovery? Scottish Gaelic in Australia

Iris Shaller-Schwaner – Non-native English(es) and English as a lingua franca

12.15	Lunch break
--------------	--------------------

14.15 Neuchâtel Block

Cornelia Tchischold – The lexicon in CALL

Monica Häuptli Gawron – Questioning the efficiency of English as a tool for cross-cultural communication in a global corporation

Gisela Zingg – Hiberno-English features in James Joyce's Ulysses

15.15 Zürich Block

Sabine Baumann – Non-native speakers' use of vague expressions in movie narratives

Adrian Pablé – Archaic dialect reconstruction in modern American drama: Mary Wilkins' 'Giles Corey' vs. Arthur Miller's 'The Crucible'

16.15	Coffee Break
--------------	---------------------

17.00 Bern Block

Sebastian Hoffmann (ZH) and Miriam Locher (BE) – Identity and its linguistic realizations: establishing authority in two internet help-lines

Lukas Rosenberger – Linguistic Input in Institutionalized English Language Teaching in Switzerland: Tracing the Origins of Pan Swiss English

17.45	Business Meeting
--------------	-------------------------

18.00	Dinner (everyone who feels like joining us is welcome)
--------------	---